Subject: Complaint under BNS Section –

Respected Sir/Madam,

I, ram, aged 23, residing at up, wish to lodge a complaint regarding the incident described below:

Incident Summary:

My name is Ramu. I am from Patka Khera village in North India. Some powerful people from the farming land in my grandfather's name were arrested. We have called for help many times in the Khera village and in the Taluka district. But no one took action. The police department is also supporting them. My crops have been destroyed. I am shocked. I am a poor farmer and I don't know what to do. I want to know if I have any government plan to help me or if I can get justice under any law.

BNS Sections:

48 - The offence is committed in India, and the abettor acts from abroad.

The offence is committed in India, and the abettor acts from abroad.

- Punishment: Treated as if committed in India.
Example: abetting cybercrime in India from abroad attracts punishment under the IT Act.
- Cognizable: Depends on the offence. Cyberterror is cognizable, email spoofing is non-cognizable.
- Bailable: Depends on the offence. Cyberterror is non-bailable, identity theft is bailable.
- Category: Abetment

31 - Honest communication made in good faith, even if it causes offence or emotional harm, is not criminal. This protects whistleblowers, advisors, or medical professionals giving difficult advice.

Honest communication made in good faith, even if it causes offence or emotional harm, is not criminal. This protects whistleblowers, advisors, or medical professionals giving difficult advice.

- Punishment: Not punishable as long as there's no malice or intent to harm; good faith is a valid defence.
- Cognizable: Not cognizable unless accompanied by falsehood, threat, or incitement leading to criminal harm.
- Bailable: Bailability and arrest are not applicable unless the communication violates another specific law (e.g., defamation with malice).
- Category: General Exception
